

Interpretation Nation: The QM Seventh Edition in Practice

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE

Distance Learning

Presenters

Dr. Alise Hagan
Senior
Instructional
Designer

Andrea
Leonard
Senior Instructional
Designer

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE
Distance Learning

University of Louisiana at Lafayette

University of Louisiana at Lafayette

- There are currently 15,345 students enrolled at UL Lafayette.
- About 2/3 of UL Lafayette students have taken one or more courses online.
- 17% of the student population is enrolled in fully online programs.
- We currently offer 21 online degrees and certificates, and we are adding new online programs every year.
- Overall, we support more than 500 unique online/hybrid courses designed by faculty.

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE
Distance Learning

Learning Objectives

- Identify Specific Review Standards prone to different interpretations.
- Discuss the real-world implementation of these standards from the perspective of a peer reviewer.
- Share strategies for improving consistency and clarity in course reviews.

Agenda

- Introductions
- Small Group Discussion
- Share Reflections
- Conclusions

Introductions

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE
Distance Learning

Quality Matters at UL Lafayette

- QM Membership since 2011.
- Online/Hybrid courses go through subscriber-managed Quality Matters review in cohorts.
- Each cohort contains 10-12 courses and lasts 1 semester.
- So far, we have certified ~70 total courses.
- During this time, we have seen a variety of interpretations of QM standards and annotations.

Attendee Introduction

Attendees:

Who here is a Peer Reviewer?

Who here is a Master Reviewer?

Small Group Discussion

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE
Distance Learning

Topics for Discussion

In your small group, please discuss:

- Ways you have seen courses meet the four standards identified.
- Ways courses commonly do not meet these four standards.
- Areas of confusion you have observed in teams interpreting these four standards.

Share Reflection

Conclusions and Next Steps

Questions & Comments

Thank you for attending!

Please send questions and comments to
distancelearning@louisiana.edu

UNIVERSITY of
LOUISIANA
LAFAYETTE
Distance Learning